Linguistics 111

Last Session

Structure

Information on final exam

Questions and exercises

The Linguistics program

Evaluations

Final Exam

When? Thursday, December 8
Where? ENG 2C02

Final Exam Format

Multiple choice questions

Phonetics (25 questions)
Phonology (25 questions)
Morphology (25 questions)
Syntax (25 questions)
Semantics (25 questions)
Pragmatics (25 questions)
----
150 questions, 3 hours, no books allowed

Final Exam

Please bring an HB pencil and an eraser.

How to review

Use your notes, and the slides used in the lectures

For Pragmatics

Section A3 - A6 in Cutting: Pragmatics and Discourse (online resource)

Textbook

Phonetics: pp. 14 - 50
Phonology: pp. 56 - 92
Morphology: pp. 103 - 130

Syntax: use lecture notes and slides to review, we did not use transformations or X-Bar syntax in this introduction

Semantics: pp. 183 - 198
Pragmatics: pp. 209 - 215

CAREERS

-- Speech and Language Pathology (MSLP)

-- Education, language teaching (MA TESOL)

-- Communication

-- Editing

-- Translation

-- Law

-- Psycholinguistics

-- Engineering

-- Computer science

LINGUISTICS IN THE U OF S

- Linguistics 4yr BA
- Linguistics 3yr BA
- Honours Program in Linguistics*

/*recommended for individuals planning to pursue graduate degrees/

WHY MAJOR IN LINGUISTICS?

- The most popular program in L&L with the highest number of majors , and more than all other programs in the Dpt put together:

  Ling majors >>> French+ Modern Languages!!!

- Gives you access to exciting careers in future.

- Was built in consideration of students' demands.

- Easily doable, very straightforward.

- Flexible: you shape your program and select courses to reflect your individual interests

WHY ELSE BECOME A LING MAJOR?

- You can use your language studies (German, Russian, Spanish, French, Sanskrit, Chinese, Latin, Cree, etc. productively towards BA Linguistics degree

For a linguist, all languages are equal, so our program supports the learning of all languages

- Upon graduation, you can apply for an MA in Applied Linguistics, and there are 2 Linguists in the Ling Program who would be very happy to have you!

4- year B: B6 Major Requirements* (NB Ling 111,2 –Soc Sc requirement)

21 cu selected from Ling 110.3, 200, 300 or 400-level LING (18cu for 3yr BA); chose ANY LING COURSES with ANY PROFESSORS you like

Plus 15 cu selected from one or a combination of the following subject areas: (12cu for 3yr BA)

-- Linguistics 200, 300 or 400-level LING

-- Language: (ANY language, 100-400 level)

-- English (no essays, courses about Engl structure)

-- Computer Science

-- Psychology

-- Anthropology

-- Communication (Rhetoric and Communication RCM)

-- Philosophy

-- Classics

-- Women & Gender Studies

HONOURS PROGRAM:

- Research methods Ling 345 or 403
- Ling 478 (your honours project)
- 21 cu from senior Ling courses (including 110)
- Choose 21 cu from:
- (all the options the same as in 4-yr BA)

WHERE TO START?

- Ling 111 Language Structures

Learn about the components of language structure – sounds, morphemes, phrases, sentences

- Ling 112 Language Dynamics (Term 2)

Learn about language history, social functions of language, native and foreign language acquisition, animal communication

DECLARE YOUR MAJOR!!!

- Online
- Students' office
- If you need individual advice, contact L&L

It is very important to officially declare your major, since resources are allocated depending on the major numbers.

Courses offered in Term 2

112 Language Dynamics

243 Morphology

244 Sociolinguistics

345 Research Methods

402 Language and Culture

- 110 Grammar
- 241 Syntax
- 242 Phonetics
- 243 Morphology
- 244 Sociolinguistics
- 245 Lexicology
- 246 Second Language Acquisition theory
- 247 World's Languages
- 340 Phonology
- 341 Semantics
- 347 Conversation and Discourse
- 345 Research Methods
- 346 Language in Time and Space
- 402. Language and Culture
- 403 Research Methods
- 404 Language and Gender